

Objective of Lesson Plan

First grade students will be given a verbal presentation asking them to discuss what they are learning in school, express their interests in careers, analyze flashcards showing careers, identify the skills needed to perform those careers, and summarize how the information they are learning now will allow them to achieve their career goals. Verbal evaluation will be used to measure comprehension to ensure all students comprehend.